

www.britforbusiness.com
hello@britforbusiness.com

Tony Wadsworth CBE

Tony Wadsworth CBE has had a lifelong career in the music industry, with positions including Managing Director of Parlophone label, Chairman & CEO of EMI Music UK & Ireland and Chairman of the industry's trade association, the BPI.

Tony is a trustee of the BRIT Trust and a Governor of the BRIT School as well as serving as Chairman of Julie's Bicycle the leading global charity bridging the gap between environmental sustainability and creative industries. Tony is a trustee of the EMI Music Sound Foundation and the EMI Archive Trust and a Non-Executive Board Director of BIMM.

Tony's knowledge and experience is invaluable and would benefit any business or individual looking for coaching within a corporate industry as well as specific to Music and Creative Arts.

An expert in the music industry, Tony has received the following in recent years for his work:

- An Honorary Doctorate in Music from the University of Gloucestershire
- In March 2008, he was awarded the prestigious Music Week Strat award for outstanding contribution to the UK music industry
- In 2009 was awarded the Scott Piering Award by the Radio Academy to recognise outstanding contribution to music radio.
- In June 2011, he was awarded a CBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours List for his services to the UK music industry

Available for: 1:1 sessions, small group workshops and speaker events.